MARTHA S. GRAFTON LIBRARY
MARY BALDWIN COLLEGE

We live in a world of changing faces where people come and go in a myriad of ways.
We touch with a smile,
a frown,
a wink,
or a twinkle of the eye.
We search each other for meaning;
looking for
love,
friendship,
and brotherhood in the faces of people we do and do not know.

We are drawn together
here;
each of us
with goals and ideas as diverse as the very origins
from which we have emerged.
We call our union
a community-
a place of which we are proud to say is bound by trust,
honor,
and hope.

We are here as the result of a long line of tradition.
Some faces have changed since our founding, but the spirit of Mary Baldwin women has yet to alter.
Born in trust and communion so many years ago, we are still an extension of that eternity.

There can be no doubt that our walls have seen some weathering and our hills have seen some change but with that change has come growth and strength.

Our
year here together can be symbolized
by the faces of our days.
We will remember our joy by recalling the
smile of a friend;
remember
our pain by recalling the vivid image of a tear sliding slowly down the cheek of a roommate.

When we remember 1980-81 we will see the face of a Cadet,
     covered with war paint during a
     raid;
 the stone face of a security guard
 who is hearing
     for the third time,
 that we forgot our
     keys;
 the face of an advisor
     who is patiently changing, for the tenth time,
 our registration card for May Term.

... and finally we will see the faces of our friends-all different,
unique
and special-
all irreplaceable in their roles of importance in our Mary Baldwin world.

Yes, it is the faces we will remember . . .
Kim O'Donnell

Dedication

The 1981 BLUESTOCKING staff would like to take this opportunity to express our gratitude to someone who has been a pillar of spirit in her many years at Mary Baldwin. For those of us at Mary Baldwin, Hattie Thomas has represented many things: strength, compassion, understanding, love and fellowship. It is hard to pay tribute to someone of such outstanding character—this dedication is our attempt at expressing the deepest, sincerest gratitude towards someone who will always remain at the very center of our hearts.

A black and white photograph of a long, dimly lit hallway. The hallway is flanked by tall, classical columns. A bright light source, possibly a lamp or an opening at the end of the hallway, creates a strong glow and lens flare effects on the left side. The perspective is looking down the length of the hallway towards the light. The text is overlaid on the dark central part of the hallway.

As a teacher, colleague, and friend, Dr. Patricia Menk has given 29 years of her career as an historian to this campus community, a gift of inestimable value. Her ability as a conveyer of the life of the past has made that past real and comprehensible for her students. It is our hope that the dedication and expertise she possesses will long serve as an example to those who study and work in this community.

Some day
in a different place
and time
when we're older perhaps wiser
we'll reach deep into our most tender and sacred hiding places
and
lying there within those walls will be a Mary Baldwin world.

Somewhere there — will be the recollection of a love found or lost
 The memory of a belief in something
 The pictures will be hazy maybe gray
     and we'll imagine that we must never have been so fat — or skinny —
     or loving or pure.

We'll be a part of a tradition then — a thing of the past which lingers on and on . . .

We'll share our place with those who came before and after —

Our spirits bound together by a strength we show in the lines of our faces.
We're different and yet the same

For we are all Mary Baldwin women.

IT IS FINISHED!

I want to thank a few people for helping me to do it. Thanks!: to M.O.P. for picking up pics, to Sandy for standing in at a difficult time, to Olivia for all of her extra efforts, to Kim for the opening and closing sections, and to PR and Campus Comments for the last minute pictures.

Peg, Thank-You for being there when all this got to be too much, and for helping out during May. Good Luck Ski! My phone bill won't ever be too much.

Good luck to Jan, who worked like this was her book and who has to pick herself up and do it again next year.

I hope that after looking through this book, you'll look back through once more. This time, don't just look for pictures of yourself or your friends. Take a long look at the Mary Baldwin Woman and her world. Be proud you can call yourself by that name.
